

James V. Campbell, M.D.
Vitreoretinal Specialist

Certification and Licensure

- Texas State Board of Medical Examiners 1973
- Diplomate American Board of Family Practice 1978
- Diplomate American Board of Ophthalmology 1991

Education

- Medical Degree: Tulane University 1973 M.D.
- College: Southern Methodist University 1969 B.A.
- High School: Gainesville Public School System 1965

Postgraduate Training

- Internship, John Peter Smith Hospital, Fort Worth, Texas 1973 to 1974
- Family Practice Faculty Development Fellowship, Family 1978 to 1979
- Practice, Faculty Development Center of Texas, Waco, Texas
- Residency in Ophthalmology, Baylor College of Medicine, 1985 to 1988, Houston, Texas
- Vitreoretinal Fellowship, Baylor College of Medicine, 1988 to 06/28/1989 Houston, Texas

Practice and Teaching Experience

- Private Practice, Vitreoretinal Surgeon, Waco, Texas 1989 to 07/31/2006
- Assistant Professor of Family Medicine, Department of 1978 to 1984
- Family Medicine, Baylor College of Medicine, Houston, Texas
- Health Authority, Waco-McLennan County Health Department 1983 to 1985
- Medical Director, Texas Life Insurance Company 1981 to 1985
- Staff Physician, Baylor University 1978 to 1985
- Director of Curriculum, Baylor College of Medicine Center 1978 to 1983 for Medical Education, Waco, Family Practice Residency Program
- Director, Emergency Room Services, Providence Hospital, 1977 to 1979 Waco, Texas
- Private Family Practice, Waco, Texas 1978 to 1985
- Private Family Practice, Gainesville, Texas 1977
- Private Family Practice, Plainview, Texas 1974 to 1976

Professional/Teaching Appointment

- Assistant Professor of Family Medicine, Department of 1978 to 1984
Family Medicine, Baylor College of Medicine,

Houston, Texas

- American Board of Family Practice, Test Question Writer 1981 to 1982
- Medical Staff, Providence Medical Center, Waco, Texas 1977 to present
- Secretary of Staff, Providence Medical Center, Waco, Texas 1983
- Medical Staff, Hillcrest Baptist Medical Center, Waco, Texas 1977 to present
- Chairman, Department of Ophthalmology, Hillcrest Baptist 1994
Medical Center and Providence Medical Center,
Waco, Texas
- Chairman, Perinatal Department of Central Plains General 1974 to 1976
Hospital, Plainview, Texas

Professional Society Memberships

- Fellow, American Academy of Family Physicians
- American Academy of Ophthalmology
- Texas Medical Association
- McLennan County Medical Society

Church

- St. Paul 's Episcopal Church, Waco, Texas Member since 1977
- Chairman, Board of Directors, St. Paul 's Episcopal School 1982 to 1983
- Vestry, St. Paul 's Episcopal Church 1984 to 1987

Civic

- Board of Directors, The First National Bank of Central Texas 1995 to present
- Board of Directors, Southwestern Diabetic Foundation 1974 to 1993
- Co-Chairman, Medical Committee of Camp Sweeney 1974 to 1992
(Summer Camp for Diabetic Children)
- Member, Waco Independent School District, Commission 1983 to 1984
on Excellence
- Board of Directors, Plainview Area United Way 1974 to 1976
- Board of Directors, Plainview City Health Department 1974 to 1976

Grants and Writing

- Grant for Graduate Training in Family Medicine; 1979, 1980, 1981, 1982;
Public Health Service, United States Department of Health, Education and Welfare, Health Resources Administration; 1 D15 16025-01. Approved and funded.
- Article, Endogenous Clostridium Panophthalmitis, written by M.T. Green,
R.L. Font, J.V. Campbell, H.M. Marines. Published in the Ophthalmology

Journal, 01 April 1987 (Vol. 94, Issue 4, Pages 435 - 438).

Research Projects

- Flu Project, Co-Investigator, Effect of Early Amantadine Treatment of Type A Influenza on Transmission of Type A Influenza Households, Baylor College of Medicine, National Influenza Center .
- Effect of Family Structure and Function on the Attack Rate of Type A Influenza and the Immune Response of Family Members in a Household. Presented for publication in collaboration with Department of Family Medicine, Oklahoma University School of Medicine.

Presentations

- Management of Intraocular Foreign Bodies, Baylor Department of Ophthalmology Alumni Meeting, 1989.
- Acanthameoba Keratitis, Baylor Department of Ophthalmology Alumni Meeting, 1988.
- The Use of Radiofrequency Scalpels in Ophthalmic Plastic Surgery, Baylor Department of Ophthalmology Alumni Meeting, 1987.
- The Association of Neurofibromatosis and Juvenile Xanthrogranuloma, Baylor Department of Ophthalmology Meeting, 1986.
- The Natural History of Diabetic Retinopathy and Traction Retinal Detachment, presented to the Department of Ophthalmology, Scott and White Hospital, Temple, Texas, May 1984.
- Medical Implications of the Family Life Cycle, presented at the 1979 annual meeting of the Southern Medical Association, November, 1979.
- Insulin Therapy for Type I Diabetics, Options for Normalizing Blood Glucose, presented as guest lecturer for the McLennan County Medical Society.
- Juvenile Diabetes, The Importance of a Summer Camping Experience, Grand Rounds, McLennan County Medical Society and Residents, December, 1982.
- The Relationship Between Stress and Illness, guest lecturer for the Institute for Study of Stress and the Family, Grand Cayman Island, British West Indies, November, 1981.
- The Use of Genograms in Clinical Family Practice, presented as a guest lecturer for the Family Practice Faculty Development Center, 1980 to 1983.

Hospital Privileges

- Hillcrest Baptist Medical Center, 3000 Herring Avenue, Waco, Texas 76708
- Providence Medical Center, 6901 Medical Parkway, Waco, Texas 76712